Blaser R93 Professional

The tougher the conditions for hunters and firearms, the more robust a hunting firearm must be.

The R 93 Professional symbolises the Blaser philosophy: a harmonious design offering unlimited practical suitability.

The straight comb and ergonomically optimised pistol grip with elastic inserts make it a pleasure to shoot and it secures comfortable handling and aiming whatever the weather.

The innovative stock in the colour combination dark green/anthracite is also available as a full left-handed version.

- One-piece dark green synthetic stock, shatter-proof and thermo-stable even under extreme temperatures.
- Ergonomically optimised pistol grip.
- Elastic inserts in the pistol grip and the forearm area ensure secure handling even in wet weather.
- Pistol grip inserts with palm swell in the right-handed or left-handed version.
- 1 cm rubber recoil pad, stock length 36.5 cm (14").
